P: 204.219.5859

E: info@blacklabtours.com

This walking tour brings to light the dark side of Winnipeg's history. As you explore the city's oldest neighbourhood, the Exchange District, hear scandalous prohibition-era tales and enjoy drinks at two of our best breweries (this tour is designed for those 18 and older).

Put on your most comfortable walking shoes! Explore with your guide the streets from The Forks Market, down Waterfront, and into the striking Exchange District. This beautiful area is made up of many buildings that have preserved their historical architecture. Your guide will be able to show you some hidden treasures while you make two stops along the way.

POURS & 1 BEER FLIGHT*

This tour takes you through the stunning and historic Exchange District. As you walk through the city's oldest neighbourhood, experience an uncensored look at the untold history of Winnipeg. From brothels to corruption, crime to sordid affairs, we temporarily suspend the friendly reputation of this prairie town. See the oldest existing bar in Western Canada, the Woodbine Hotel. Learn the seedy, scandalous, and liquor-laced stories you were never meant to hear.

Nonsuch Brewing Company – Enjoy a snack and 2 small pours at this Indigenous-owned establishment, named one of Canada's best restaurants and breweries, as you get a crash course in professional beer tasting.

Little Brown Jug - Enjoy a tour and a beer flight from one of Winnipeg's first craft breweries on their patio—one of the coolest in Canada!
